Introducing
HOLLAND SEEDS

and a page of NEW NOVELTIES many of them introduced to America for the first time

SPECIAL OFFERS: GLADIOLI & DAHLIAS & BEGONIAS & LILIES & PLANTS & ROSES

HOLLAND SEEDS

FREE a packet of a glorious new type of Spencer's Sweet Peas with every order amounting to $3.00 and over, selected in either Seeds, Bulbs or Plants and mailed to us before March 15th.

Together with this special offer of summer-flowering bulbs and plants we introduce a rare selection of annual seeds—exclusively HOLLAND grown.

In the mild, moist climate of Holland numerous plants are grown to a perfection, which can not be matched in any other place in the world. Also Seed growers of great skill and experience have developed during the centuries in which Holland has led the world in the skill of gardening.

The flower seeds, of all varieties, in the following list are from Holland gardens. Incidentally, though important, the high germination of Holland's Seeds was not effected by severe winter or drought.

Stassen guarantees that these are positively FRESH Seeds and will prove satisfactory in every respect.

Gladioli for Beds and Borders in SEPARATE COLORS

These separate colors are still more reasonably priced than the named varieties listed on the preceding page, although they are of the same prime quality. This special offer is intended for customers who are not particularly interested in the named varieties but wish to make their selection of Gladioli according to color.

We especially recommend the separate colors for the laying out of beds, groups or borders in one color. Only one variety is supplied for each color.

Rainbow Mixture of large flowering Gladioli

This mixture is well proportioned as to color, it consists of light, dark and intervening shades, not too many hard colors or too many pale ones, but harmonizing, bright, striking and fine.

Besides the almost perfect beauty which this mixture exhibits in the garden, it also possesses a very great value on account of the many cutflowers it produces. And although they possess all these excellent qualities, these Gladioli are so surprisingly cheap.

Tuberous Begonias

Begonias are perhaps the handsomest of all summer-flowering tuberous-rooted plants, they are at present the chosen plants for the decoration of window boxes, house plants and for the laying out of beds, borders or groups in semi-shady locations. We do not know of any flower that will give you as much satisfaction. It offers in its various types both the most dazzling display of brilliant colors, in bold single flowers, and the most delicate tones of artistic shades in flowers of exquisite form, of any bulb that grows. Gigantic flowers appear uninterruptedly from June till frost and their bright colors contrast well with the deep-colored foliage. Their culture is of the simplest, you can plant the bulbs at once on the spot intended for them, provided that they are given a soil in which more than the usual quantity of rotted manure or humus has been used. They require plenty of water during dry weather.

MONTBRETIAS

Montbretias are one of the brightest of the summer-flowering bulbs. The entire plant, foliage and flower is graceful. The pendent bell-shaped blooms are placed well apart on thin, wiry stems, about 2 feet long, which branch and arch daintily. They produce a succession of blooms, one twig has not yet faded, before another is already there to take its place. No flowers lend themselves more happily to the arrangement of graceful designs in vases or bowls.

ANEMONES

The wonderfully beautiful Anemone flowers surrounded by delicate green leaves are such a perfect combination that every stem is a marvel of nature and a thing of exceptional beauty in the world of flowers. As cutflowers they have no equals. In planting the bulbs use some sand around them, for they want thorough drainage. Bloom June-July.

RANUNCULUS

Some time after the typical spider-shaped bulbs have been planted, (remember, legs downward) finely-chiselled green foliage appears above the ground, followed somewhat later by numerous flower stems. The large double flowers open one after another until they form a sea of flowers. They are ideal for rockeries, beds, edgings and groups and excellent for cutting. Large-flowering, genuine French-Hybrids in a wealth of colors.

TUBEROSES

Double "The Pearl"

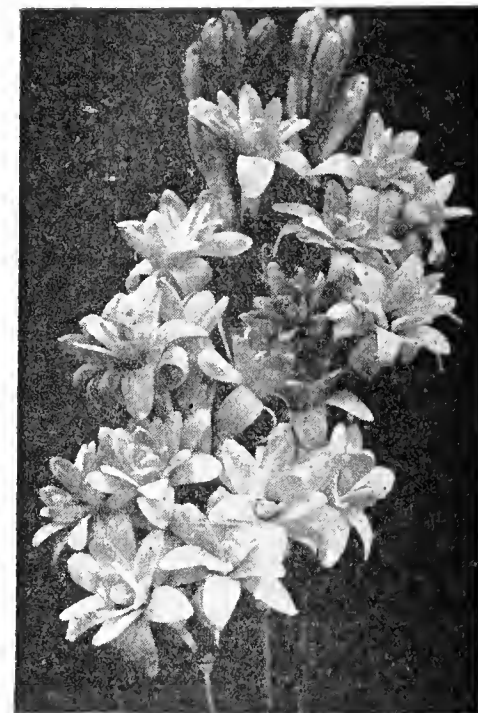

The Tuberose is a fine summer flowering bulb. The flowers are waxy white, double and exceedingly fragrant—a single flower will perfume a room. For early flowers they can be started in March in the greenhouse or hotbed; and for a succession they can be planted at intervals as late as July. For flowering outdoors, plant about the middle of May, or as soon as the ground becomes warm. They do best in a rich, warm soil and a sunny location.

CHLIDANTHUS FRAGRANS

This fine summer-flowering bulb produces flowers of the Amaryllis order on stems 12 inches long, yellow of color and delightfully fragrant. Blooms June-July.

each $.20; 3 for $.50; doz. for $1.75

ISMENE CALATHINA

(Peruvian Daffodil)

One of the choicest of our summer-flowering bulbs, bearing a profusion of clusters of large, very striking, fragrant white flowers. Grows about 18 inches high, the trumpet shaped flowers are borne 3 or 4 on a stem, similar to the Amaryllis. Planted out in May, they will commence flowering in July. The bulbs may be taken up in October and potted to flower again in the winter or be kept over and planted out next season.

each $.20; 3 for $.50; doz. for $1.75

CALLA LILY

Mrs. Roosevelt. This is a Calla of marvelous beauty. Its flower is large, light yellow or white, tinged amber. The foliage is dark-green with numerous white spots, which gives the plant a very ornamental appearance.

each $.25; 3 for $.60; doz. for $2.10

HYACINTHUS CANDICANS

(Summer Hyacinths)

Produce a succession of slim flower stalks reaching a height of 4 feet, each of which carries a score or so of pure white bell-shaped flowers. We strongly recommend them for solitary groups, beds, corners and are most effective and satisfactory for use against a dark background such as a wall or evergreens. They grow and bloom in any soil. While liking the full sun they do well in partial shade.

AMORPHOPHALLIS RIVIERI

(African Lily)

This strange plant produces first a gigantic Calla-like dark red flower, of no particular beauty. The palm-like stalks and foliage that follow however, resembling an umbrella, are of genuine decorative value, where a tropical touch is desired. They make a very ornamental plant.

each $.45; 3 for $1.20; doz. for $4.25

AMARYLLIS

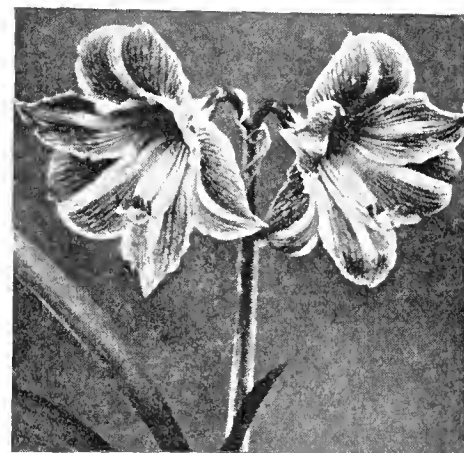

Hippeastrum—Giant Hybrids

One of the most expensive, but also the most beautiful indoor plant. Bulbs throw vigorous stems with from 4 to 6 giant blooms, beautifully formed and colored, ranging from white grounds with varied markings of rose, red and crimson to the richest self-colors as scarlet, crimson, cherry and almost maroon. We supply a mixture only.

each $.30; 3 for $.75; doz. for $2.70

OXALIS

The cheeriest little flowers in the world. Above their attractive tri-lobed leaves, the flowers are produced day after day, week after week, with indefatigable persistence. They are among the most satisfactory of all plants for porch boxes and hanging baskets. They are useful not only in front of the border, or for "edging", but are very attractive in the rockgarden, where they help make a show of color at a time when many of the areas which were carpeted with blossoms earlier in the season now show only foliage. They multiply rapidly and may be lifted in the fall for winter blooming indoors.
